

Make It Beautiful

What have I done
To make you doubt me?
I gave you my days.
I gave you my sleep.

Never took time.
Never asked nicely.
Worked like a dog
For promises cheap.

Everybody's talking.
Nobody says a thing.
Everybody wants the crown.
Nobody wants the king.

If nothing matters,
Make it beautiful.
Make it beautiful
Before we go.

If life is cruel,
Make it useful.
Plant something strange
And let it grow.

Time fell apart
While I was working.
Monday was young.
Friday was dead.

Maybe we're dreams
Inside of a machine.
Maybe the moon
Is stuck in my head.

The strangest thing
Is probably true.
The world may be lying,
But so are you.

If nothing matters,
Make it beautiful.
Make it beautiful
Before we go.

If life is cruel,
Make it useful.
Plant something strange
And let it grow.

I was a child
Dressed as a grown-up.
Holding the world
With both little hands.

Now I'm grown,
Looking for that child.
Maybe they knew
What nobody understands.

I wanna lose
An entire afternoon.
I wanna sing
Without proving a thing.

If nothing matters,
Make it beautiful.
Make it beautiful
Before we leave.

If life is cruel,
Don't make a religion of it.
Give me one good thing
I can believe.

What have I done
To make you doubt me?
Nothing, my love.
Nothing at all.

The tree may be high.

The tree may be low.
Plant something strange
And let it grow.
